OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER
GOVERNMENT HOUSE
Bangkok, May 27, 1968.

Dear Mr. Eugene Black,

Upon my return to Bangkok, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and deep appreciation for the luncheon given in my honour at the Chase Manhattan Bank on May 7 and followed by the very interesting summary of progress on the Mekong Project.

Indeed, the Project, when completed, will contribute greatly to the economic and social advancement not only of Thailand, but also of other countries in the Southeast Asian region. We are grateful that you and your great country have taken interest in it.

Please accept my warmest regards and best wishes for your continued good health and success.

Yours sincerely,

Field Marshal T. Kittikachorn

(Thanom Kittikachorn)
Prime Minister of Thailand
