NEW PASSENGER SERVICE TO STRAITS SETTLEMENTS

The Ellermen and Bucknall Steamship Company, Limited, announce the inauguration of a new passenger service between London and the Far East. The boats assigned to this service are the "City of Manchester" (8752 Tons d.w.) the "City of Simla", a new twin screw steamer of 10,500 tons, furnished with the latest appointments for passenger accommodations and the "City of Calcutta" (10,500 tons d.w.). Starting at Hamburg the ships will touch at Rotterdam and either Plymouth or London. Their Far Eastern destination is Yokohama and they will touch at Hongkong and Shanghai. On the outward voyage they will sometimes call at Penang which will be a regular port of call on the homeward run. The first class fare from Penang to London will be $925.71 (about U.S.$460/- at present exchange.) From Penang, the first vessel will sail for London about the first of March. The Penang Agents are McAlister and Company, Ltd.
