SUBJECT : His Majesty's Visits to Ceylon, Korea, Turkey; and to the US to Place Princess Ubolratana in School

REF : Bangkok's A-1199, June 14

On several occasions His Majesty has mentioned to me that he and the Queen had decided to abandon these visits, and also would not accompany the Princess to the U.S. to place her in Concord Academy, where she will be a student for the coming year, because they feel it unwise to be outside Thailand in what may be a critical period. Specifically, both he and Her Majesty have mentioned the large numbers of letters they have received from people throughout the country, urging them to remain here in a period about which the general populace also feels a good deal of uneasiness.
