TRANSLATION FROM SIAMESE DAILY NEWSPAPER
"THAMMADHIPAT" OF 12.9.1950.

" Britain's Foreign Minister is pleased with Thailand.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs have received a report from the Thai Ambassador in London stating that when he called to pay his respects to Britain's Foreign Minister at the end of August this year, Britain's Foreign Minister expressed to the Thai Ambassador his pleasure at Thailand's support of the United Nations in the Korean incident and in the decision to despatch troops to assist in this war by stating that this action was wholly in conformity with the honourable history of Thailand. Apart from this he thanked His Majesty's Government for co-operation in the war against subversive elements in the territories bordering the Thailand/Malaya boundary. "
