Korea.

Thai Foreign Minister is reported to have made following points at press conference yesterday.

2. Thailand had already made clear her decision to stand in the democratic camp, and was one of the countries who has recognised the South Korean Government.

3. There was little practical assistance Thailand could give to South Korea because Thailand herself was in need of building up her defence forces.

4. The Minister expressed hope that United Nations Mediator would succeed in ending war in Korea.

5. Press carry foreign news reports but no comment.

5. [Sic]Dollar and gold rates are following trend of Hong Kong market.

7. Singapore please pass to other addresses of telegram under reference as desired.
