DEPARTMENT OF STATE

To The Honorable

The Secretary of State,

Washington, D. C.

Sir:-

I have the honor to refer the Department to this Legation's despatch No. 597, of October 4, 1924, relative to the possibility of Americans being allowed to own and purchase land in Siam, and have the further honor to inform the Department that in a conversation with the Minister for Foreign Affairs yesterday afternoon, he stated that Mr. Francis B. Sayre and Dr. Eldon R. James together with His Siamese Majesty's Representative in Washington have been empowered to draft a suitable decree which is to be issued by His Majesty granting such a privilege to American citizens after signature of the three unsigned treaties Siam is at present negotiating, namely the Italian, Belgian and Norwegian treaties.

Prince Traidos stated that the decree would be of the nature of granting to American citizens similar rights as those of the most favored nation.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Samuel S. Dickson.

SAMUEL S. DICKSON
Charge d'Affaires ad interim.
