OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER,
GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
BANGKOK.

November 7, 1973

Mr. President,

I wish to thank you most warmly for your kind message of congratulations on my appointment as Prime Minister of Thailand.

It is indeed a source of inspiration to me and the Thai Government to receive such words of assurance from you on the part of the United States for the continuity and growth of our mutual friendship and cooperation. I look forward with great confidence that the existing close and cordial relationship between our two nations will continue to be maintained and strengthened for our mutual benefits in the years to come.

I take this opportunity to extend to you and the American people our very best wishes.

Yours Sincerely

(Sanya Dharmasakti)
Prime Minister of Thailand

His Excellency
Richard M. Nixon,
President of the United States of America,
The White House,
Washington D. C.
