Telg. drafted 4/8/46 HPL

335, April 4, noon

Foreign Minister asks confidentially if we see any objection to establishment diplomatic relations between Thailand and Soviet Union. Agreed setting up relations reached early 1941 and actual exchange Ministers prevented by German invasion Soviet. In March of 1945 Thailand inquired through their Minister Stockholm if Soviets then willing exchange Ministers. Reply affirmative but no action taken. Soviets requested through Thailand Minister Stockholm January this year relations now be established Yseni and Khuang Governments took no action. Foreign Minister now wish us give favorable answer to Soviet inquiry but wishes first to get our views.
